Gynn Lane 2009

The Gynn Lane Junior Handicap Road Races took place on Tuesday 9th of June 2009, over 70 of the clubs young athletes took part in these races. As a result there were a number of exciting finishes with some very good performances from a number of athletes. In four of the races the first across the line did not win after handicaps due to improved performances from other runners, although good runs by Lewis Byram and Max kaye did mean they won the race as well as recording the fastest time, in Max Kaye's case he only pipped Michael Booth by one second. In the youngest age group although Olivia Syskes had a great run a number of the younger athletes put in strong runs with a great run by Amy Kettlewell allowing her to take first place. In the boys event George Orton finished strongly to cross the line first but one of the youngest runners Thomas Addy prevailed after the handicap was taken into account. Ruby Sykes recorded a family double in recording the fastest time in the over 13 girls but Alannah Booth continued her improved form this season to stay close enough to take the handicap honours, with two of girls who were not looking forward to the race, Grace Mullinger and Jenna Lee Moffatt taking 2nd and 3rd. In the under 13 girls Isabel Dewar-Fowler used her strength and experience to keep going to the end in taking the handicap honours just beating the fastest girl Lucy farguhar by 4 seconds. A big thanks to all marshalls and time-keepers. results subject to verification.
